

ABOUT US

About Us

Compassion, Excellence in Home Health and Individualized care is our commitment to our Patients.

Our Mission

Is to provide you or your loved one with individualized, compassionate and comprehensive care in the comfort of your home or at your place of residence.

Our Vision

IJN will meet the needs of our patients, assist them to achieve the highest level of independence, health and function possible and most importantly respect their rights, privacy and dignity in the process.

Our Values

To provide quality care that will help your loved one maintain their independence, health and dignity; so that both patients and family members can continue to enjoy the lifestyle that makes them content.

Our story

IJN is a locally owned Home Health agency committed to providing families in our community with the best in-home care services. Our commitment to our patients and families is very simple:

We'll help our patients or your loved one continue to live at home, and we'll help you find peace of mind by providing compassionate and excellent services to you or your loved one.
